10. GENERAL CONDITIONS

10.1 Cargo dues shall be payable prior to the shipment or discharge of any goods, unless the shipper or consignee has been granted credit terms by the Council. The Council reserve the right to retain any goods in respect of which the cargo dues have not been paid, and that at the cost of the shipper or the consignee, as the case may be, until the dues and costs thereby incurred by the Council are settled in full.

10.2 Cargo dues shall be charged on goods according to gross metric tonnage or other chargeable unit, as specified in the schedule, subject to a minimum charge of £1.00. Fractional parts of any chargeable unit shall be rounded off to the nearest half unit.

10.3 Dues shall be payable on goods once only, where -

- (1) the goods are landed from any vessel and re-shipped in the same or in another vessel (in the same packaging) and there is no change in the consignee, and that within the period of one month, or,
- (2) the goods require to be repackaged because of any damage to, or the destruction of, the original packaging.

10.4 Dues shall be payable on goods, containers, and any other equipment or property stored at harbour premises.

10.5 Any person engaged in the fish trade who is authorised, as agent of the Council, to deduct from the selling price of fish landed or consigned at a harbour, an amount in respect of the harbour dues thereon, shall record details of each transaction, including the quantities of fish bought and sold, the amount payable and the deduction in respect of harbour dues. Such records shall be open to inspection by the Council, when required.

10.6 Payment of a composition fee in terms of Sections 3.1 and 3.2 shall relate only to the vessel and the harbour area in respect of which it has been paid.

- (2) By special arrangement and subject to the availability of berthage, a vessel, for which a composition fee has been paid, may be berthed in another harbour area administered by the Council without further charge for the maximum period of one week. This provision shall not apply at Macduff harbour.
