

Apprentice Mason- Job Profile

Although there are no formal qualifications required for this post, you should have a willingness to study towards a construction skills apprenticeship course. You have good communication and good customer relations skills and can demonstrate competency in relation to health and safety. Training certificates in relation to Health and Safety would be desirable as is the ability to travel within Aberdeenshire.

You will be required to work within building maintenance as part of the trade's team with responsibility for carrying out Masonry related works.

Job Purpose

To carry out a range of maintenance, repair and improvement work on properties owned by both the council and external agencies all in accordance with the agreed terms and conditions as contained within contract and/or service level agreements.

Main Tasks

- Carry out a range of general maintenance, repair and improvement work
- Complete work according to targets and schedules
- Complete all required contract administration processes
- Work in accordance with established working practices

Essential Criteria

- Proven interest in Building work
- Enthusiastic and efficient learner
- Good communication skills
- Conscientious, flexible and motivated
- willing to work toward a construction skills apprenticeship program and Nationally recognised qualification designated in a specialist trade

Desirable Criteria

- Good with figures
- Ability to travel within Aberdeenshire
- NPA in Masonry (National Progression Award)
- Good computer skills