HOUSE OF COMMONS DISQUALIFICATION ACT 1975 (as amended)

Rule 8 of the Parliamentary Elections Rules provides that a candidate's consent to nomination under this rule shall contain a statement that he/she is aware of the House of Commons Disqualification Act 1975 and that, to the best of his/her knowledge and belief, he/she is not disqualified for membership of the House of Commons.

The relevant disqualifying offices are listed in Section 1 of, and Schedule 1 to, the 1975 Act, a copy of which is available for inspection from the Returning Officer.
