

- 1 Murchalls Shore or 'Gin Shore' was infamous for the smuggling of wine and spirits from Belgium and Holland. A tunnel from the Shore to Murchalls Castle, one kilometre inland, was the perfect tunnel for smugglers.
- 2 The fishing village of Murchalls originally lay about a mile south of its current centre, beyond Doonie Point at Murchalls Shore.

