

- 1 The first flight across the North Sea started from Cruden Bay beach in 1914. Trygve Gran, a 26 year old Norwegian, crossed from Scotland to Stavanger. A small memorial stands in the village.
- 2 The first North Sea oil was pumped ashore from the Forties oilfield in an undersea pipeline buried under the south end of Cruden Bay beach before being pumped to the BP refinery at Grangemouth.