Info @ the Hub

The Doors Open Days event Hub will be at the Acorn Centre, West Church, Inverurie this year (venue 13). We will be on hand all day to answer questions, give directions and to help you make the most of your visits.

Come along and visit the beautiful West Church as well as a number of interesting displays from interesting organisations. Please see the venue 13 entry for details.

Opening Times

The majority of properties are open all day, but please do check the opening times of the properties you wish to visit as they do vary.

Openings may be subject to unavoidable last minute changes, so for the most up to date information on the buildings taking part, please check the event’s national website or our Facebook page (details on back page). We will post any last minute changes here.

Please note that visits to the Dutch Barn and the Haddo Walking Tour are by booked tour only and require booking in advance. Please see brochure entries for details.

Aberdeen City Doors Open Day, Saturday 10 September

The week before Aberdeenshire’s Doors Open Day, on Saturday 10 September, you can also explore 38 buildings in Aberdeen City, including 5 new buildings this year; New this year are the Rowett Institute, Ferryhill Parish Church, The Anatomy Rooms, Rosemount Community Centre and the Hutton Institute.

Many buildings will feature activities and events, including a free talk in the Townhouse at 3pm on the reroofing project at the Townhouse and the exciting discoveries made during the project. For the full programme see www.doorsopendays.org.uk/aberdeen or like us on Facebook.

Designed by William Ramage, who trained alongside renowned Aberdeen architect Archibald Simpson, was a keen member of the Episcopal church. St Congan’s was consecrated in 1862 when it replaced an earlier Kirk which is believed to have roots back as far as the 7th century. In 1905 St Congan’s held a Bazar to raise funds for an extension of the churchyard and a new organ.

This is an opportunity to view the final product of the most recent project to improve the facilities within the Kirk. This striking Kirk, in the distinctive local red sandstone with elaborate spire, are a welcome addition to this year’s Doors Open Day event.

You are also encouraged to visit the ruin of the earlier Kirk designated Category A listed and just a short walk away.

Delgatie Castle offers the visitor a very historic building with the ambiance of a lived in home. Dating from 1050 in the earliest part, refurbished in 1534, additions in the 1700’s and 1800’s it has been in the “Hay” family hands for most of that time. There are very fine painted ceilings dating 1592 and 1597 with writings and proverbs and pictures depicting people. The Castle boasts the widest turnpike stair in Scotland which is the same width from the bottom to the top. Mary Queen of Scots stayed here for 3 days after the Battle of Corrichie. Almost all of the rooms in the Castle are open for viewing. The “Laird’s Kitchen” will be open from 10a.m. to 4p.m. A great opportunity to see inside this amazing Category A listed Scottish Tower House. NEOS artists and crafts people will be displaying their work on the day.

The Category B listed former Parish of Forgue Kirk stands in the old Kirkyard on a hill overlooking the Forgue Burn. The Kirk was built in 1819 on the site of a much older kirk - by legend, founded by St. Margaret of Scotland in 1070. It was designed by Archibald Simpson the renowned Aberdeen and Scotland architect and has a south wall inspired by Alberti’s Tempio Malatestiano church in Rimini (Italy). The windowless north wall was designed to keep the devil out. It retains its painted ceiling and a fine Conacher organ of 1875. The old Kirk is now a community building for the people of Forgue.

- Yes - (Tea, coffee & biscuits)

The Category B listed Christ Church was built in 1849, designed by Thomas MacKenzie and sits within the conservation Area of Huntly and compliments the other fine buildings in this historic town.

It has an attractive simple nave and chancel, tall narrow lancets and octagonal spirelet; it is harled with freestone dressings including corbel course, global skewputs and bellcote.

There is a wooden Arts and Crafts Altar, carved with panels of the Agnus Dei and two angels, one on either side. Restoration and development of the building under the supervision of a conservation architect was completed in early 2016, following generous grants from The Heritage Lottery Fund and Historic Environment Scotland.

Information will be on display showing the restoration process.

The present church was built in 1808. The interior was completely remodelled in 1902 by prominent Aberdeen architect A Marshall Mackenzie when the chancel was added together with the Laird’s Loft, organ, vestry and session room. The crowning glory of chancel is the unique east window by Louis Comfort Tiffany and depicts the archangel Michael on the wheel of time.

The church including galleries has seating for 1000. The church is built on an early Christian site. A number of carved symbol stones found close to the site have been inserted into the east wall on the exterior, below the Tiffany window, and a mediaeval church is known to have been located here too.

Fyvie Guide House was built as a cottage hospital in 1897 to serve the local community. It was gifted by Colonel and Mrs Gordon of Fyvie, originally designed by James Duncan, and in 1907 Lord and Lady Leith of Fyvie enlarged and renovated the building. It continued to be used as the local hospital until 1963. In 1965, it was purchased by Aberdeenshire Guides at a cost of £2000. County Commissioner Mrs Alison Catto set about fundraising to convert the building to a holiday home for local Brownies and Guides.

It was opened on the 10th June 1967 by Lord and Lady Forbes-Leith and the first visitors were Maud Brownies. Since then hundreds of girls and leaders have had fun at Fyvie. Visitors will be able walk through the building and speak to members of the management committee about the history of the building and its renovation plans. Teas, coffees and home bakes will be available for a donation.

Take a unique tour of this wonderful parkland and explore its history and monuments by torchlight. Starting from a ‘bleak wilderness’ of peat bog, over 300 years the Gordon family created today’s landscape of trees, lakes and monuments. We’ll discover the history of Haddo from original creation to the most recent restoration- via the battle of Waterloo, 18th century theatre, family tragedy and a ridiculous amount of gold paint! You may also get to see some of the parkland’s native wildlife, including badgers, foxes, owls and red squirrels.

To book a place on the tour, please email haddo@visithaddo.com or call 01651 851041

- Yes
- Yes - limited parking to the rear for short periods
- Yes - there is a cafe facility in the building

Come along and visit us at the Hub at the West Church and Acorn Centre Inverurie on the first floor.

The Category B listed Church building was altered by raising the floor level to create a café and meeting space, whilst retaining the upper gallery which is used both as a place of worship and as an event space for hire. The church has an interesting modern glazed porch extension erected on the main elevation in 2006.

We will be based in the upper gallery and will be on hand to assist with any queries you have for visiting properties and planning your day. In addition there will be displays from the Favourite Buildings in Aberdeenshire Project, Aberdeenshire Council’s Archaeology Service, Museums Service, Built Heritage Team, the North East Scotland Building Preservation Trust and literacy charity Books Abroad. Books Abroad will gratefully accept book donations at the Hub on the day. To find out more about the work that they do, please visit their website.

Opening Times: 10am – 4pm

- Yes - all access is on one level with ramp to main door
- No
- Yes
- Yes - public car park adjacent
- Yes

The Masonic Lodge is one of the oldest surviving buildings in Inverurie dating from 1890 and further extended in 1910 with written records going back to 1794 when the Lodge was first formed to meet in Inverurie, it also has many photographs of the members from bygone times. The internal decorations are typical of Masonic Lodges in Scotland. There will be Masonic Meeting records on display for the public to review.

Members will be present throughout to answer any questions or offer further advice and assistance if required. It supports local charities with substantial donations and National Charities through its contributions to the Grand Lodge of Scotland with the main beneficiary being PROSTATE SCOTLAND this year.

...See if you can spot the Celtic sculptured stone set in the exterior north wall of the Lodge. Prior to this it had been at an old house used as a Dissenting chapel near the corner of Cunning Hill Road and the High Street.
ELLON

15 Ellon Castle Gardens

Ellon, AB41 9JH

- Opening Times: 10am – 3pm

The gardens are not completely suitable for anyone with restricted mobility at the moment – however wheelchair users would be able to access most of the lower area of the garden.

Parking

- No

Parking is available at either the Ellon Medical Centre or within the old academy car park

Details

Ellon Castle Gardens are situated in the centre of Ellon and consist of a walled garden and woodland extending to around 6 acres, within the terraced gardens are a collection of ancient yew trees and a Category B listed castle ruin along with various other artefacts.

The gardens which have until now always been privately owned and rarely open to the public, are now under the control of a charity formed to oversee the gardens eventually being developed and restored for the benefit of the community. In part of the garden awaiting restoration, you can view an exposed part of the Victorian ‘heating’ system where hot water was pumped along the retaining walls to provide heat for more ‘exotic’ fruits of the day!

Details of guided tours are to be confirmed. For further information please check Ellon Castle Garden’s Facebook Page https://www.facebook.com/Elloncastlegardens or email marketing@elloncastlegardens.org

… keep an eye out for our resident Red Squirrels, they love an opportunity to say hello to visitors.

UDNY GREEN

16 Udny Mort House

Udny Churchyard, Udny Green

- Opening Times: 9:30am – 5:30pm

Parking

- On street

Designed by John Marr of Carinbrogie, and built by mason Alex Wallace and wright, Thomas Smith of Oldmeldrum in 1832, this Category B listed circular building was constructed to keep corpses safe from the infamous ‘body-snatchers’ before burial, who were quite common throughout Scotland in the 18th and 19th centuries.

The Mort House is cylindrical, built from granite ashlar with a conical slated roof. It still has the original stout oak door and protective metal shutter and keyhole. The Mort House also contains the original oak revolving coffin platform.

Udny Historical Society will be on hand to show you inside the Mort House and to give a short tour of the Udny Churchyard, which in itself is Category C listed and contains a number of interesting early 18th and 19th Century gravestones.

The B listed church was designed by architect James Matthews in 1858 at the commission of Major Ramsay, Laird of Straloch. The building was originally built as both a church and as an estate school. A board school was later built in 1876, since which time, All Saint's has been used only as a church.

Major Ramsay's daughter, Mrs Irvine of Drum and Straloch commissioned the 11 stained glass windows and reredos designed by Sir Ninian Comper between 1896 and 1916 installed in the church. Comper was one of the last Scottish Gothic Revival architects, noted for his churches and their furnishings, in particular, stained glass windows. There will be an exhibition on the stained glass windows by Sir Ninian Comper and members of the church will be on hand throughout the day to talk about the building and its contents.

...Visit this delightful church and see the 'Tea Bag Angel' art installation made from tea bags donated by people from the local area to raise funds for the charity Embrace, a charity providing education for Syrian refugees in Lebanon.

Yes- at adjacent Cluny Church

No

Described by architectural historians as possibly the finest sepulchral monument in Aberdeenshire, the Category A listed mausoleum was built for the first female laird of Castle Fraser by James Byres of Tonley in the Roman New-Classical style in 1808. The standard of construction is superb although internally water ingress has damaged the memorials. Visitors will be able to view the interior from the entrance, which includes putti (stone angels), as well as the family memorials as the sandstone memorials are in such a delicate condition.

Recently acquired by the Friends of Elyza Fraser, a representative of the group will be on hand to talk about the mausoleum. This is a rare opportunity to see inside as the mausoleum is usually locked. There will be a display relating to architect James Byres of Tonley and Miss Elyza Fraser.

...Cluny churchyard itself is Category A listed and contains four mort safes (contraptions designed to protect graves from disturbance by grave robbers) and an unusual terracotta Early Italian Renaissance monument to James Reid and his wife Marie Claudine Nardon (circa 1897).
