The aim of landlord registration is to ensure that all private landlords and agents in Scotland are ‘fit and proper’ to be letting residential property (Note 1). The owner of every let property must register, and must declare anyone who acts for them in relation to their letting.

ALL JOINT OWNERS MUST BE REGISTERED. There are only a few exceptions from the requirement to register (Note 2).

Members of the public will be able to view each local authority’s register of approved landlords online at www.landlordregistrationscotland.gov.uk. By entering the address of one of your properties they will be able to check that you are registered and also see your name and the contact address for you or your agent. This information can also be obtained by contacting the local authority.

When you have completed this form please return it to:
Infrastructure Services, Housing, (Landlord Registration) Aberdeenshire Council

Note: Joint Owners
Where properties are jointly owned, one of the owners should be deemed to be the ‘Lead Owner’ and complete Form 1.
The remaining joint owner(s) should each complete a separate Form 2.

There is no requirement for joint owners to pay the registration and property fee, this is paid by the designated lead owner.

Guidance Notes

Note 1

To be registered, landlords and their agents must be ‘fit and proper’ to let residential property. Local authorities must take account of any evidence that the person has:

- committed any offence involving fraud, dishonesty, violence or drugs
- practiced unlawful discrimination in connection with any business
- contravened any provision of the law relating to housing, or landlord and tenant law and the person’s actions, or failure to act, in relation to any antisocial behaviour affecting a house they let or manage.

In addition to the information provided on the form, the local authority will also take account of any other relevant information they hold about you. They will make a balanced judgement on the basis of all the available information, there is no automatic refusal.

If you let property in more than one local authority area, the authorities will share information to ensure they have all relevant details, but each authority will make its decision independently.

Note 2

Exemptions apply to properties rather than to people. If all of a landlord’s properties in an area are covered by one or more of the exemptions, he or she does not need to register with that local authority. If some of his or her properties are exempt, the other properties must still be registered. A property is exempt from registration if it is:

- the only or main residence of the landlord, where there are not more than two lodgers
- let under an agricultural or crofting tenancy
- occupied under a liferent
- used for holiday lets only
- regulated by the Care Commission, in certain categories
- owned by a religious organisation and occupied by a leader or preacher of that faith
- occupied only by members of a religious order
- let to specific members of the landlord’s family only, (contact local authority for clarification)
- held by an executor
- possessed by a heritable creditor
- owned by a local authority or Registered Social Landlord.

If you are unsure whether an exemption applies to you, please contact Aberdeenshire Council for advice.
Note 3

‘Discrimination legislation’ means:

- the Equal Pay Act 1970
- the Sex Discrimination Act 1975
- the Race Relations Act 1976
- the Disability Discrimination Act 1995
- the Employment Equality (Sexual Orientation) Regulations 2003
- the Employment Equality (Religion or Belief) Regulations 2003

Note 4

There are various types of qualification or permission to let houses, which go by different names depending on the organisation which issues them, or the country where they apply. This form uses the following definitions:

Registrations or licences are required by law, and are issued by local or central government. In Scotland this applies to registration of all landlords under the Antisocial Behaviour etc (Scotland) Act 2004, and licensing of Houses in Multiple Occupation. You should also include any similar permissions you hold in other parts of the UK.

Voluntary accreditation is something landlords or agents can apply for to show that they meet high standards in letting. Accreditation schemes may be run by local authorities, landlord organisations or a combination of the two.

Note 5

A property may be a House in Multiple Occupation (HMO) if:

- at least three people live there, and
- the people who live there belong to three or more families, and
- they share a kitchen, bathroom or toilet.

All HMOs must be licensed by the local authority. If you think your property may be an HMO and you do not have a licence, please contact the local authority for advice.
Note 6

LANDLORD REGISTRATION FEES

Landlords

This flowchart should be used by landlords to determine the fee payable when making a paper application for registration. Applicants applying online will automatically have their fee calculated.

Landlords and agents who let property in more than one local authority should submit an application for registration to each relevant local authority. A fee will be payable in each of these local authorities. Payment must accompany your paper application when you submit it.

Please refer to the section ‘Fee Exemptions’ before calculating your fee.

Principal Fee of £65

Plus

Property Fee of £15 for each

Plus

Agent Fee of £65

If you use an unregistered agent or an agent who has not applied for registration then an additional agent fee is applicable. Check the position with your agent or local authority.

Equals

Total fee = principal fee + property fee + agent fee (if using an unregistered agent)

---

Agents

If you are registering as an agent then you should pay the principal fee of £65 only.
FEE EXEMPTIONS

Charities

You will be exempt from paying a fee if you are a registered Charity.

Joint Owners

If you jointly own a property then you will be required to nominate a ‘lead owner’ within your application. If you are the nominated ‘lead owner’ then you will be required to pay a fee and should follow the fee flowchart to calculate this fee. If you are not the lead owner then you are exempt from paying the principal fee or property fee for the jointly owned properties. Joint owners however will be charged a late application fee if their registration is not renewed on or before the expiry date. This would apply to all joint owners. If you own property that is not jointly owned you will be required to pay the relevant registration fees for this.

Houses in Multiple Occupation (HMO) Licence Holders

If you hold a current HMO licence in the local authority where you are applying for registration then you are exempt from paying the principal fee. In addition, you are exempt from paying the property fee for any HMO properties covered by your HMO licence. You will need to pay a property fee for any non-HMO properties.

AGENT FEE

If you use an agent and that agent has not applied for registration or is not already registered, then you will be liable to pay an ‘agent fee’. This fee is to enable the local authority to assess the agent you are using as fit and proper. The agent fee does not apply if the agent is on the Scottish Letting Agent Register, a Registered Social Landlord, a Local Authority, a registered charity, or if they hold a current HMO licence in the local authority where you are applying for registration.

ADDITIONAL FEE - LATE APPLICATIONS

You may be liable to pay an additional fee (a ‘late application fee’) if you submit an application for registration only after your local authority has issued two requests for you to do so. In order to avoid this additional fee, you should make sure that you submit a valid application as soon as you need to. This applies to lead and joint owners.

You should contact your local authority on Tel: 01467 534853 or email: landlordregistration@aberdeenshire.gov.uk if you are unsure what fee you need to pay and whether you might be exempt.
