FORMER LONGHAVEN SCHOOL

Longhaven, Peterhead, AB42 0NU

Location:

Longhaven is a small village on the A90 approximately 6.5km south of Peterhead and 43km north of Aberdeen. Local amenities include a village hall and convenience store. Peterhead, which is the largest town in Aberdeenshire, is a short drive to the north, and provides a good range of commercial, retail, leisure and educational facilities.

The property is on the north side of the A90 and is bounded by a residential property on the northeast, by the A90 on the southeast, by the village hall on the southwest, and by an open field on the northwest.

Description:

The property is the former Longhaven primary school and comprises 3 attached buildings. The former schoolhouse is at the front of the site and is a one storey and attic building of granite construction with a timber pitched and slated roof. It is attached to the original, single storey school building which is also of granite stone construction with a pitched, slated roof. There is a more modern, single storey extension to the rear of the original school building, which has concrete block walls and a dry dash external render. The roof is mono-pitched with a tile covering.

Internally the floors are mainly timber with a mixture of carpet and vinyl covering. The walls are mainly plastered and painted, and the ceilings are a mixture of suspended acoustic tile and painted plaster. There is fluorescent lighting and electric wall mounted heating.

The external areas mainly have a tarmac covering but there is some grass/vegetation at the rear of the property. The front of the property was formerly used for car parking and as a playground. The majority of the site is enclosed by traditional granite stone walls.

Services:

The property is served by mains water and electricity. Foul and surface drainage is to the public sewer.

EPC:

The property has a building energy performance rating of F.
