Stage 7: Have any of the affected groups been consulted?
If yes, please give details of how this was done and what the results were. If no, how have you ensured that you can make an informed decision about mitigating steps?	Consultation has been undertaken with individuals, families and carers and through representatives of the protected groups at various forums, via surveys, focus groups, consultation events and local research. Routine entrance/exit questionnaires are undertaken. All consultation is in line with National Standards and informs priority setting. Individuals are always involved and consulted on their own assessment and any subsequent intervention. Consultation has indicated that there are high levels of satisfaction with service delivery.

Stage 8: What mitigating steps will be taken to remove or reduce negative impacts?
These should be included in any action plan at the back of this form.	Mitigating Steps	Timescale

Stage 9: What steps can be taken to promote good relations between various groups?

These should be included in the action plan.	Conflicting views and beliefs inevitably occur both within and between various groups and in the case of Adult Services, between those providing and receiving services. In order to promote good relations Criminal Justice seeks to challenge stigma, promote inclusion at every level and ensure that all decisions can be defensible and transparent (dependent on legal restrictions). Criminal Justice will seek to ensure it plays its role in mainstreaming the Council's Equality Outcomes through embedding these in all major policy documents.

Stage 10: How does the policy/activity create opportunities for advancing equality of opportunity?

All activity in Criminal Justice is underpinned by Codes of Practice and Standards that are geared towards minimal interference in private life, reducing harm and maximising opportunity for people to realise their rights and responsibilities. All key legislation explicitly requires the Service to take account of protected characteristics.

Stage 11: What equality monitoring arrangements will be put in place?

These should be included in any action plan (for example customer satisfaction questionnaires).	Equality measures are monitored by the Council Equalities Team. Criminal Justice will work them via the Service Improvement Team to ensure these are incorporated in Service monitoring arrangements.
