

CONSTITUTION FOR SCHOOL PARENT COUNCIL

This is the constitution for School Parent Council (herein referred to as “the Parent Council”).

The Parent Council is set up in accordance with the provisions of the Scottish Schools (Parental Involvement) Act 2006 which details the functions required of the Parent Council and which are more fully explained in the Guidance to the Act. This constitution should be interpreted in conjunction with the Act and the Guidance with the understanding that where there is conflict it is the provisions of the Act that will take precedence.

Throughout this document the term Parent shall be taken to mean parent, carer or guardian.

Aim and purpose

The objectives of the Parent Council are:

1. To work in partnership with the School to create a welcoming school that is inclusive for all parents
 2. To promote partnership between the School, its pupils and all its parents
 3. To develop and engage in activities which support the education and welfare of the pupils including providing or assisting in the provision of facilities to enhance education at the School
 4. To identify and represent the views of parents on the education provided by the School and other matters affecting the education and welfare of the pupils
 5. To participate in the appointment of senior staff at the School

The membership of the Parent Council shall be made up of parent members from the Parent Forum and co-opted members. Any parent of a child at the School may volunteer to be a member of the Parent Council. As a minimum there shall be four parents of children attending School. The maximum number of parent members shall be 12. Best endeavours will be made to ensure that within this number each stage of the School is equally represented, the stages being S1/S2, S3/S4 and S5/S6.

CONSTITUTION FOR SCHOOL PARENT COUNCIL

Appointment of Members shall take place at the Annual Meeting. In the event of there being more than 12 volunteers, members will be selected first according to the stage that they represent, this means that if there are four or fewer volunteers for any of the stages those volunteers shall automatically be appointed. Remaining places will be determined by the drawing of lots.

Where there are fewer than 12 volunteers, all shall automatically be appointed. Vacancies may be filled at any time after the Annual Meeting should further volunteers come forward. In seeking to fill vacancies the Parent Council shall have due regard to balanced representation of the stages.

Parent Council members will be selected for the period up to the next Annual Meeting after which they may put themselves forward for re-selection if they wish.

Any other member of the Parent Forum may be part of any sub-groups set up by the Parent Council.

The Parent Council may co-opt up to four non-parent members to assist it with carrying out its functions. At no time shall the number of co-opted members exceed one third of the total Parent Council membership. Best endeavours will be made to ensure that co-opted members include teaching staff from the School and, if numbers allow, non-teaching support staff and senior pupils.

Co-opted members will be invited to serve for the period until the next Annual Meeting after which time the Parent Council will review and consider requirements for co-opted membership.

The Parent Council can choose to invite others to participate in its proceedings. This may include the Local Councillors in whose wards the School's catchment area falls and a representative from each of the Parent Councils of the primary schools feeding in to the School.
