

The Formartine & Buchan Way

Dyce to Newmachar

4 miles

Walking, Cycling & Horse-riding

Directions

The Formartine & Buchan Way begins at Dyce Railway Station. Access to the line is from the far right corner of the station car park situated off Station Road. Station Road is accessed from Victoria Street, the main road running north to south through Dyce.

There is an abundance of wildlife along the walk and you can see many buzzards swooping down from the trees, whilst flocks of redwing and fieldfare can be spotted along the route.

Hints and Tips

Beyond Newmachar take a rest and enjoy the distinctive view of Bennachie to the west.

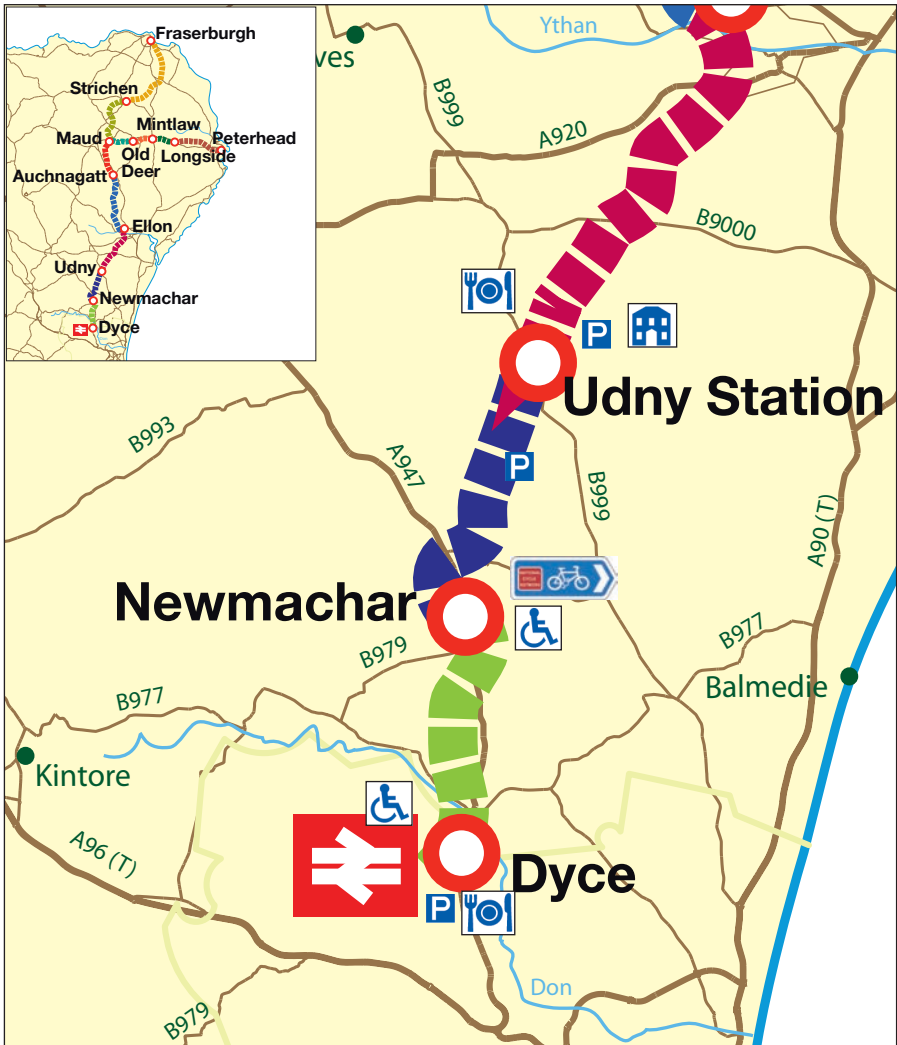

- Take your binoculars as you can spot some interesting varieties of birds.
- Wear suitable clothing and footwear for outdoor use.
- Remember your picnic.
- Start your journey by taking the train to Dyce.
Train times can be found at www.scotrail.com
- Use the parking bays in Newmachar to commute to Dyce by bicycle for regular healthy exercise.

The Formartine & Buchan Way

Dyce to Newmachar

4 miles

Based on Ordnance Survey mapping. © Crown copyright reserved. Aberdeenshire Council, 0100020767 (2010).